TRANSIT TOOLKIT: TIPS AND TRICKS- AUGUST

Welcome to the first edition of Transit Toolkit- A Senior's Guide to Public Transportation provided by the Seattle Department of Transportation (SDOT) in partnership with King County Metro and Hopelink.

Transit Toolkit is designed to help senior riders navigate Seattle's public transit systems. Transit Toolkit educates and informs riders on ORCA card basics, best practices while riding transit, and how to stay healthy and safe while riding Seattle public transit in COVID-19.

Traveling to the Grocery Store

Traveling to the Doctor's Office

Traveling to Daycare

New Normal. New Metro: Please only use public transportation for essential trips. Essential trips are needed trips riders take in order to stay happy and healthy during COVID-19. Essential trip examples can be seen above.

Fare Updates

Starting July 1st, 2020 Sound Transit reinstated normal fares for the Link Light Rail, Sounder Trains, and Sound Transit express busses. King County Metro has not reintroduced fares so transit will remain free through August. Current fares can be found below:

	Mode	Fare Cost
	Sound Transit Express Buses	Adult fare $3.25; RRFP $1.00
	Link Light Rail	Adult fare $2.25-$3.00; RRFP $1.00
907	Sounder Train	Adult fare $3.25-$5.75; RRFP $1.50-$2.75
	King County Metro Buses (includes RapidRide)	All fares are currently suspended Adult fare $2.75; RRFP $1.00

What is a Regional Reduced Fare Permit (RRFP)?

- Regional Reduced Fare Permit (RRFP) is a discounted ORCA card for Seniors 65+ and for riders with disabilities ages 6-64
- You can ride King County Metro buses, Link Light Rail, Sound Transit Buses, Community Transit Buses, Pierce and Kitsap buses, and the Seattle Streetcar for just $1.00
- Use the application attached to this form to apply for a card today and receive a free, pre-loaded RRFP card with a $36.00 value!
- Questions? Call King County Metro: (206)-553-3000

